

MUSICAL CHAIRS

Begin by deciding the number of players and arrange some chairs, back to back, in the center of the room, allowing one chair less than the number of players.

A non-playing individual controls the music. While the music is playing, the players walk in unison around the chairs.

When the music controller suddenly shuts off the music, everyone must race to sit down in one of the chairs. The player who is left without a chair is eliminated from the game, and one chair is also removed to ensure that there will always be one fewer chair than there are players.

The music resumes and the cycle repeats until there is only one player left in the game, who is the winner.
